Into the Woods: Théatre du Châtelet

ABOUT THE EVENT

Take a walk in the woods with the master of Broadway musicals, Stephen Sondheim, at the Théatre du Châtelet in Paris.

With 'Into the Woods', Stephen Sondheim offers an interpretation of famous fairy tales which bypasses the nostalgic lanes of childhood. Instead, the work explores with humor and enchanting melodies the metaphoric role of the forest in traditional tales.

In English, with surtitles

Music & lyrics: Stephen Sondheim
Book: James Lapine
Orchestration: Jonathan Tunick
Musical direction: David Charles Abell
Direction: Lee Blakeley
Set design: Alex Eales
Costumes: Mark Bouman
Choreography: Lorena Randi
Light design: Oliver Fenwick
Puppet master: Max Humphries

Cinderella: Kimy Mc Laren
Narrator: Leslie Clack
Baker: Nicholas Garrett
Baker's wife: Christine Buffle
The witch: Beverley Klein
Jack: Pascal Charbonneau
Cinderella's Prince: Damian Thantrey
Rapunzel's Prince: David Curry
Steward: Jonathan Gunthorpe
Little Red Riding Hood: Francesca Jackson
Jack's mother: Rebecca de Pont Davies
Rapunzel: Louise Alder
Florinda: Elisa Doughty
Lucinda: Lucy Page
Cinderella's Father: Scott Emerson
Cinderella's Mother: Kate Combault
Cinderella's Stepmother: Jasmine Roy
Giant's voice: Fanny Ardant
Snow White: Dorine Cochenet
Sleeping Beauty: Cécilia Proteau
Orchestre de chambre de Paris

The 'horseshoe' shape of the historic Théâtre du Châtelet results in partially blocked views from some seats. The different prices take these disturbances into account.